

Manor Woods PTA Presents...

Spring 2010

Abrakadoodle has ALL NEW LESSONS. Join us as children discover their creativities, talents and abilities through painting, sculpture and additional creative media.

In this session, we will be highlighting many NEW artists including Master Impressionist Claude Monet and his series of Water Lilies in 1906 and Jim Arnosky writer and illustrator of children's books including All About Turtles in 2000 and other "All About" books for Scholastic.

All skill levels are welcome in Abrakadoodle—not just the future artists among us. Classes bolster self-confidence and pride, while teaching art history, techniques, vocabulary, and socialization skills.
