World Language Quest in Spanish

Offers students the opportunity to begin learning a world language at an optimal time in a child's development.

Generates interest in other cultures and the comparisons between those cultures and their own.

Motivates students to actively participate in an increasingly global community.

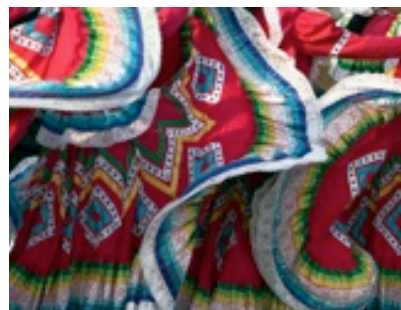

Expands students' knowledge of Science themes within a global context. This session, we will be exploring concepts around sea life and saving our seas and oceans.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW:

- Mondays, 01/30/2012 to 03/26/2012 from 3:30 - 4:30 PM
- 8 weeks for 60 minutes with time at the beginning for snacks (students provide their own)
- Fee: $125 per student by check made payable to the Office of World Languages, HCPSS

Program Highlights

- Curriculum that is high interest and motivating
- Content-based instruction with a Science theme
- Immersion in the target language with the support of visuals and gestures
- Hands-on activities that engage students in the language
- Focus on speaking and listening with exposure to reading and writing
- Cultural connections throughout
- Teachers who are fluent in the language and knowledgeable about strategies for working with younger learners
